

RACE BY RACE ANALYSIS

By Acacia Courtney

Friday, February 2, 2018

RACE 1:

4 – Teak
3 – At Odds
7 – Charnley River (Aus)

SELECTIONS: 4-3-7-1

RACE 2:

7 – Atizapan
6 – Put the Boss Back
1 – Sound Values

SELECTIONS: 7-6-1-3

RACE 3:

5 – Niche
3 – Rupp
6 – Aces for John

SELECTIONS: 5-3-6-2

RACE 4:

9 – Gift of Glory
8 – Lost Princess
5 – Unstablenthemornin

SELECTIONS: 9-8-5-2

RACE 5:

5 – Gran Togoshi
6 – Conston
7 – Crafty Jack

SELECTIONS: 6-5-7-2

RACE 6:

4 – Padilla
7 – Our Independence
8 – Tale of Kantharos

SELECTIONS: 4-7-8-3

RACE 7:

1 – Angelino
6 – Rocky Strange
5 – Jailhouse Kitten

SELECTIONS: 1-6-5-8

RACE 8:

1 – Bee Quiet
3 – Tenacity Zip
7 – Oh My Warrior

SELECTIONS: 1-3-7-8

RACE 9:

8 – Phantom Opening
2 – Sophie Germain
7 – English Dancer

SELECTIONS: 8-2-7-4

RACE 10:

9 – Rock and Fellers (Arg)
6 – Fast Friar
3 – Unbridled Outlaw

SELECTIONS: 9-6-3-5

RACE 11:

6 – Surf Shack
5 – Monetary System
8 – Asked and Answered

SELECTIONS: 6-5-8-11

BEST BET: Race 3 - #5 Niche

This gelding's natural early speed will be his best weapon in here and looks to be spotted perfectly, especially with trainer Jorge Navarro reaching out to one of his go-to riders in Emisael Jaramillo. My hope is that he controls the pace and never looks back.

LONGSHOT: Race 8 - #7 Oh My Warrior

This horse has been facing by far the best competition lately, and gets a needed drop in class today. I know that his debut win was on a sealed sloppy track, but he backed that performance up with a solid 4th in stakes competition at Gulfstream Park West second time out. More than anything, he should get the trip behind a hot pace, and at a good price.