

RACE BY RACE ANALYSIS

By Acacia Courtney

Friday, February 9, 2018

RACE 1:

3 – Bantu
1 – Elk Camp
7 – Congruity

SELECTIONS: 3-1-7-2

RACE 2:

7 – Dino Three O Nine
2 – Travy Boy
3 – Window Table

SELECTIONS: 7-2-3-6

RACE 3:

5 – Mind Your Biscuits
4 – One Liner
1 – Big Daddy (Chi)

SELECTIONS: 5-4-1-2

RACE 4:

1 – Valedictorian
5 – My Country
6 – Florida Fabulous

SELECTIONS: 1-5-6-4

RACE 5:

3 – Cinderela El Crome
7 – Salute With Honor
2 – Baba Tobi

SELECTIONS: 3-7-2-4

RACE 6:

2 – Playing Hooky
1 – Uncle Gio
8 – Frontier Market

SELECTIONS: 2-1-8-5

RACE 7:

4 – Samara
2 – Increased Scrutiny
1 – Brainchild

SELECTIONS: 4-2-1-8

RACE 8:

3 – Hidden to Win
5 – Ventina
2 – Competitive Player

SELECTIONS: 3-5-2-1

RACE 9:

7 – Gold Lace
8 – Luckbe Tanya
9 – Pulled the Goalie

SELECTIONS: 7-8-9-4

RACE 10:

2 – McFly
9 – Visionary Ruler
8 – Wild Good

SELECTIONS: 2-9-8-5

RACE 11:

8 – Tres Huevos
11 – Too Stormy
6 – Uncle Mace

SELECTIONS: 8-11-6-10

RACE 12:

12 – Linburgh's Kitten
11 – Hey Howie
3 – The Moment Is Now

SELECTIONS: 12-11-3-2

BEST BET: Race 9 - #7 Gold Lace

Gold Lace gets her claiming tag sliced in half for an outfit who really knows how to spot horses where they can be successful. She has some natural early speed and, though beaten as the favorite last time out, should appreciate the class relief today and I expect Jose Ortiz will have her in a good spot early.

LONGSHOT: Race 7 - #4 Samara

This filly is dropping in for the tag for the first time after three consecutive races against maiden special weight competition, and also gets the blinkers on. Luis Saez, who rode her in her first two starts, picks up the mount today, and she looks very well spotted in a field where the favorites may be a bit vulnerable.