BEST BET: Race 12 - #8 Laythatpistoldown

This horse is coming off an impressive win at this level last time out, in which he showed another dimension and came from off the pace instead of showing early speed. Irad Ortiz Jr., who piloted him last time out, will be aboard again today.

LONGSHOT: Race 5 - #6 Stormy Action

This colt might be overlooked in the wagering, but we have seen many well-meant runners ship down from Woodbine during this Championship Meet, and trainer Roger Attfield's horses are no exception. Trying the turf for the first time, Stormy Action definitely has the pedigree to suggest he'll take to the grass and already has a race under his belt.
