BEST BET: Race 6 - #4 Funny Duck

I really liked this horse last time out, and yet he was cut down by the impressive late-running Hawkish, a firster with a big turn of foot. He'll pick up Tyler Gaffalione today and already has the experience at this track and at this distance.

LONGSHOT: Race 10 - #3 Brucarita

This horse had a good win last time out here at Gulfstream with John Velazquez aboard, and while he's facing tougher competition here, I think he could be a player. Velazquez rides again, and some of the others that figure are coming off of a layoff or have their own share of questions.
