BEST BET: Race 6 - #6 Barbados Kitten

This mare has definitely had some bumps along the way, but I think it's encouraging that she's making her third consecutive start without a break, and second off the claim for Saffie Joseph Jr, should move forward. They added the blinkers last out and she ran a very good second.

LONGSHOT: Race 1 - #3 Stay Safe Kitten

Making her second start at Gulfstream Park and second start for trainer Marcus Vitali, this filly comes out of a race where there was a lot going on, and had trouble at the start. The winner, Pulled the Goalie, went on to make it back-to-back wins by flattering the field and taking her subsequent start, and Emisael Jaramillo in the saddle adds to the intrigue.
