BEST BET: Race 9 - #8 Two Step Blues

Getting back to turf, which seems to be her preferred surface, this filly looks very tough to beat from the outside post. She ran very well on the sealed sloppy track last time out, and two back had a legitimate excuse when her momentum was shut off in the stretch. She has natural speed and goes out for a strong barn in Victor Barboza Jr.

LONGSHOT: Race 1 - #4 Favorite Heir

This tough gelding has been running against significantly tougher competition, and though he meets a solid field today, I feel he has a slight class edge. He certainly is off form lately, but the drop in class should help, and I like the fact that Jose Ortiz stays aboard. The last time he ran at this level, he won.
