BEST BET: Race 6 - #8 Evolution

This gelding will be a very short price, but he looks like he'll be tough to beat. Coming off a bit of a freshening for a high percentage barn, he looks to be the controlling speed, as well. Perhaps most importantly, Evolution is getting a slight drop in class today and I think this spot suits him perfectly. He has some races on the go-back that make him stand far above this field.

LONGSHOT: Race 3 - #8 Spiteful

With the presence of the Todd Pletcher runner Mambo Dancer taking a drop in class, it looks like you should be able to get a good price on pretty much everyone else in the field. Spiteful is a filly that has only run twice, and only once on the grass. She is also in for the tag for the very first time, having only run against special weight company. She ran a solid third at big odds last time out and was game to nab the show position. She also seems to be training well and has some tactical speed which should serve her well.
